Castilla Termal Monasterio de Valbuena

pág. 4

The chance to get married in a Monastery with over 800 years of history.

Located in the heart of the prestigious Ribera del Duero Denomination of Origin, the Monastery of Valbuena stands in all its splendour as one of Europe's most renowned Cistercian works of architecture. It dates back to 1149, and its historical and artistic value was officially recognised in 1931, when it was declared a National Historic-Artistic Monument. Furthermore, in 1985 it was named a Site of Cultural Interest.

The Monastery offers an opportunity like no other to delve into an exceptional historical atmosphere, combining impressive indoor and outdoor spaces filled with lush Castilian-Leonese flora.

A unique building as the perfect setting for one of the most special days of your life together.

Idyllic settings
for a magical day

The versatility of both the indoor and outdoor spaces we offer ensure an unforgettable backdrop for your wedding, from the church to a host of other magical settings.

delight in evil but rejoices with the truth”*

The church of Valbuena

The Church of Santa María de Valbuena dates back to the 17th century, with its spectacular altarpiece making the perfect backdrop for your wedding.

*Booking, scheduling and dates for the ceremony must be arranged by the couple directly with the church's parish priest.

L'Orangerie

The place where the endless skies of Castile and León and the Ribera del Duero blend together in an outdoor space that is perfect to celebrate your special day with your loved ones.

Let yourself fall in love with this unique atmosphere full of nature, overlooking the Ribera del Duero, with its amazing sunsets that will create the perfect landscape to complement your memories of the most special day of your life.

Available for evening weddings.

The Cloister

This space is the cornerstone of the Monastery of Valbuena: everything revolves around it. The arches, the rose windows, the stone sculptures and the vast Castilian sky will envelop your event, offering you a unique outdoor setting.

Side of The Cloister

Original stone space with floral motifs. It is the oldest part of the Monastery, dating back to the 13th Century. Its incredible Italian-inspired paintings of biblical scenes will transport you back to medieval times.

The Refectory

Crowned by a large barrel vault, The Refectory was the monks' former dining room where they would eat in silence. Today, this 13th-century architectural gem is the perfect place for those in search of an exclusive venue to celebrate their wedding banquet.

Dolia Hall

The perfect venue for big weddings. This newly built hall is an open space with plenty of natural light and views of the Monastery Church. Here you'll be able to celebrate a large wedding with all the comforts, without losing the unique charm of the Monastery stone all around you

The Atrium's Garden

This garden setting offers unique views of the 12th-century Church's main apse and the bell tower. It provides a gorgeous backdrop for civil ceremonies or outdoor afternoon cocktail parties.
